

David B. Lever

David has been tirelessly advocating for the legal rights of accident victims, injured through no fault of their own since 1990. David is proud to say that every case he has handled throughout his professional career, has been on behalf of individuals without regard to their financial means. He never defends insurance companies or corporate defendants. Known for his integrity and commitment to fighting for what he believes is right, David is well respected by both lawyers and judges in the legal community.

David opened the doors to his own law practice at the young age of 30, after having worked for a prestigious New York City plaintiff's personal injury firm. While some things have changed over the years, one thing that remains constant is David's unwavering passion for his work and for the clients he serves. David derives personal satisfaction in being able to bring a small measure of dignity back to those whose lives have been forever altered.

David has been the driving force in consistently recovering significant monetary awards for thousands of firm clients over the years. David treats every case as his only case, thus ensuring that each client receives the personal attention that they deserve. David's wealth of experience continues to guide the firm's approach in determining the most effective course of action required to achieve the maximum recovery possible for his clients, sparing no expense.

David received his Juris Doctor from Pace University School of Law in 1989 and his undergraduate degree from Ithaca College. David is admitted to practice before the courts of the States of New York and New Jersey, the United States District Court for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, United States District Court of New Jersey, United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the United States Supreme Court.

David is a member of several bar associations, including the New York State Trial Lawyers Association, the New York State Bar Association, the Westchester County Bar Association, the Bronx County Bar Association, and the Justice Brandeis Law Society, on which he serves as a member of its Executive Committee.

In his personal time, David lives with his wife, daughter and three dogs in northern Westchester. David enjoys golf, racquetball and rooting for his hometown Yankees, Giants and Rangers.
