

David B. Lever and Family Presented Leadership Award
by The Adults & Children with Learning & Developmental Disabilities (ACLD)

Earlier this month, David Lever and his family were honored with a Leadership Award at the ACLD's annual Enviable Life Ball for their combined 50 years of dedication and service to the incredible organization. Operating on Long Island, New York, ACLD is a non-profit organization that works to provide opportunities to children and adults with Autism and Learning/ Developmental disabilities to pursue enviable lives, promote independence, and foster supportive relationships within the community. David and his family, along with colleagues, close friends, and the ACLD community celebrated the people who make ACLD the impactful organization it is, and plan to continue to work towards a successful future for all who are part of ACLD.

CLUSTER community service organization, serving Westchester and Rockland County residents, announced the appointment of Adam C. Weiss as the new Board Chair to the CLUSTER Board of Directors.

CLUSTER provides services and programs that assist residents in Yonkers and throughout the counties of Westchester and Rockland to build a better future for themselves and their communities.

“The work that CLUSTER has done throughout Westchester and Rockland, providing services supporting mental health, eviction prevention, dispute resolution, and enriching the lives of our youth is incredibly impressive and motivational,” said Adam. “I look forward to working with my Board colleagues and CLUSTER’s staff in continuing to move their important mission ahead, focusing on the empowerment of individuals, families and communities to fulfill their dreams and potential.”

“We are excited to have Adam take on the role of board chair! As a dedicated board trustee, Adam has led several initiatives including becoming a champion for CLUSTER’S Giving Tuesday. We are thankful to have him partner with us,” said Freda Macon, Executive Director of CLUSTER.
