

L&E Attorneys Receive 2024 Super Lawyers Award

We're excited to share that Lever & Ecker's lawyers have been recognized as Super Lawyers for the fifth consecutive year! The Super Lawyers Award is given yearly to outstanding lawyers with a high degree of peer recognition and professional accomplishment. We are very proud that our award-winning attorneys David B. Lever, Daniel G. Ecker, and Adam C. Weiss (Rising Star) have all been recognized for this tremendous achievement in 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, and 2024. We'd also like to give a special shoutout to David B. Lever for being voted one of the Top 25 Lawyers in Westchester!

Lever & Ecker Hosts Rooftop Reception for Justice Duffy

Left to Right: David B. Lever, the Honorable Colleen D. Duffy, and Daniel G. Ecker

Lever & Ecker was pleased to support the Honorable Colleen D. Duffy, a New York State Supreme Court Justice, and Associate Justice of the Appellate Division, Second Department with a rooftop reception on Thursday, September 19th. The event received a great turnout on a beautiful evening, and we wish Justice Duffy the best of luck during the upcoming election!

David B. Lever Debuts on The Hidden Entrepreneur Podcast

What drives someone to fight tirelessly for justice, especially those who might otherwise be overlooked? Find out more in the recent episode entitled "Championing Grieving Families and Elevating Legal Practice," in which David Lever shares his profound journey inspired by his younger brother Jeffrey.

David's mission extends beyond the courtroom as he advocates for the passage of the Grieving Families Act in New York, aiming to secure recovery for grief and anguish in wrongful death claims. His relentless advocacy highlights the need for equitable compensation for all, regardless of economic status, revealing the true heart behind his legal battles.

From the business side of law to the personal touch needed for client relations, David discusses the complexities and challenges of running a law firm with host Josh Cary. They also explore the critical balance between rigorous legal work and personal well-being, stressing the importance of family time, self-care, and continual education. This episode offers a rich tapestry of insights into the challenges, rewards, and heartfelt human connections that define the legal profession.

Employee Spotlight: Meet Geraldine Allen!

Geraldine Allen has been a valued member of Lever & Ecker since 2015, bringing nearly a decade of experience and dedication to the firm. When she joined Lever & Ecker, she held a paralegal degree, but it was her first time working in a law firm environment. Over the years, Geraldine has held a variety of roles, from reception to case opening to intake support, and she now proudly serves as the firm's Intake Department Manager. Her versatility and commitment have earned her the trust and appreciation of both clients and colleagues alike.

Geraldine finds her work immensely rewarding, particularly in building strong relationships with clients, many of whom have come to rely on her support and expertise. Beyond her professional life, Geraldine is a proud wife and mother of three. She also enjoys spending time with her 100 lb lab named Kasper.

Trick or Treat... Safely!

Halloween is around the corner and that means children and parents will be out in the streets after dark to celebrate the festive holiday. Below are a few important Halloween reminders for everyone.

Trick-or-Treaters:

- Cross streets carefully, at intersections and in crosswalks where possible
- Map out safe routes and always stay with your group
- Bring a flashlight and wear reflective clothing or tape
- Examine candy carefully
- Make sure your child can see through their mask and their costume isn't a tripping hazard

Drivers:

- Make sure to be extra cautious and deliberate

Greeters:

- Make sure the path to the door is clear and easily accessible
- Keep outdoor lights on
- Use battery-operated lights rather than candles
