

Lever & Ecker Donates 100 Turkeys to Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Program

This Thanksgiving, we're deeply grateful to everyone who takes the time to read this newsletter and stay connected with our firm.

It is in that spirit that we proudly continue our tradition of donating 100 turkeys to a community-wide effort to prepare thousands of Thanksgiving meals for families and individuals across Westchester, the Bronx, and Queens.

It's such an honor every year to stand alongside the donors, cooks, drivers, and volunteers who make this program possible.

Lever & Ecker Recognized by Super Lawyers for Personal Injury Law

We're proud to share that Lever & Ecker's attorneys have once again been recognized by Super Lawyers for 2025, an honor that reflects years of hard work, dedication, and consistent results for our clients.

This year brings several meaningful milestones for our team:

David B. Lever continues his 2020–2025 Super Lawyers streak and has once again been named among the Top 25 Westchester Super Lawyers for both 2024 and 2025.

Daniel G. Ecker celebrates seven straight years on the list (2019–2025), a testament to his unwavering commitment to his clients.

Adam C. Weiss is recognized as a Rising Star for the sixth year in a row (2020–2025).

And we're especially excited to celebrate Katherine A. Henderson, who earns her first-ever Rising Star honor this year!

Only a small percentage of attorneys statewide receive these distinctions. We're grateful to our clients, colleagues, and peers for the trust that makes achievements like this possible, and we remain committed to advocating for those who need us most.

David B. Lever Featured on the Finding Genius Podcast

Employee Spotlight: Meet Megan Galbo

Megan joined the team as a paralegal, driven by her passion for helping others and thriving in a collaborative environment. She values working alongside colleagues where ideas are shared, learning is constant, and everyone works together toward a common goal.

In her new role, Megan is particularly excited to connect with clients, providing support and guidance during challenging and vulnerable moments. She is eager to develop skills that facilitate meaningful conversations and help build trust and rapport with every client. Megan's approach combines versatility and attentiveness, ensuring she meets clients where they are and provides clear, accurate information about their cases. She collaborates closely with her team to select the most appropriate resources and ensure every client receives the attention they need.

Outside of work, Megan is passionate about languages—she taught herself Italian to deepen her connection to her heritage and enhance her travel experiences. This skill has also inspired her to explore other languages, including Spanish.

Megan lives by the mottos, "You are exactly where you need to be right now" and "Everything happens for a reason," which guide her optimism and dedication as she grows in her career.

Employee Spotlight: Meet Veronica Diaz

Veronica joins Lever & Ecker as a paralegal, inspired by her experiences growing up in New York and witnessing firsthand how difficult it can be to navigate challenges without proper legal resources. Motivated by a desire to help others understand their rights and options, she is dedicated to supporting clients and ensuring they receive the guidance and justice they deserve.

In her new role, Veronica is excited to make a meaningful difference for clients and her community while continuing to grow her skills in the legal field. She is committed to helping guide clients through stressful or complex situations and supporting her team in achieving the best outcomes.

Veronica approaches her work with a hands-on, personal touch, meeting clients where they feel most comfortable and treating each interaction with care and attention. She believes in seeing clients not just as cases, but as people, and works to make them feel supported and understood.

Outside of work, Veronica is passionate about giving back to her community. She has organized food and school supply drives, supported domestic violence shelters, and participated in local initiatives like backpack giveaways for children in need. She also enjoys writing music, which serves as a creative outlet.

Veronica is guided by the motto she shares with her children: even in challenging times, kindness matters, and every setback can be a setup for a major comeback. With faith and perseverance, she believes every storm can lead to a victory.
